

KIMBERLY KING

Co-President

The Peace Company

Kimberly King is a Visionary, Strategist and Change Agent in the fields of multi-stakeholder alliances, marketing-communication, and global social enterprise. Kimberly's unique perspective comes from 25 years' as a recognized leader in financial services and public-private partnerships, working with trade groups, Fortune 500's, govts; non-profits, media orgs and the United Nations.

Her extensive client/partner list includes: American Express, AT&T, Coca-Cola, McDonald's, United Airlines; AARP, Credit Union National Association, and Association of Federal Employees; The City of LA, LA Economic Development Corp and the World Trade Center Association; The Golden Globe Awards, Hollywood Foreign Press, NBC, PBS; UNFPA and UNDP.

Kimberly is CoFounder of the Sophia Global Action Network and Sophia Women's World Conference, a Special Advisor to the Institute for Strategic Clarity, and member of the Global Leadership Council for the Women, Faith and Development Alliance.

Kimberly has also served as board member/advisor to the Chopra Foundation, National Museum of Women's History, Foundation for Conscious Evolution, Alliance for a New Humanity, and Ethical Marketplace.

Kimberly King was recently honored as the first recipient of the Eleanor Roosevelt Global Humanitarian Award, presented by Women's International Center and the Living Legacy Awards. Kimberly is a featured Co-author of The Power of Team, and part of the best selling series, "Wake Up, Live the Life You Love."

Kimberly is a true global citizen, having worked and traveled across six continents and nearly 70 countries. She and husband, Brent, are Co-Presidents of a For-Benefit Social Enterprise called The Peace Company, and Co-Directors of The Peace Leadership Institute.