

SUE VAN DER HOUT

President

iBLOOMLive

Sue is founder of iBLOOMLive, set to launch in Fall 2008, an interactive forum where women can safely explore their challenges and opportunities as they and their lives change.

Sue founded Girlphyte.com in 2006, an online webzine about how women are redefining success that in 26 short months has received over 2.8 million hits and is now read in over 50 countries.

Sue is a regular speaker to women across Canada on career and life success. Sue has a LLB and an LLM and practiced law almost 25 years. She has taught as an adjunct Professor internationally and in Canada, and is currently teaching at Schulich, Canada's leading School of Business.

Sue is Vice-President of Women Entrepreneurs of Canada (WEC) responsible for Community Outreach; a member of and organizer of The International Alliance of Women (TIAW) Global Forum in 2008; the Founding President of Family Firm Institute Ontario Chapter (FFI ONC); a member of Access Circles US; a supporter of the Sophia Women's World Conference 2010 (UN); and a member of the Association for Corporate Growth (ACG) and of Women in Capital Markets (WCM).
