

THEA M. MILLER
Program Director
Women on Board™ Mentoring Program

Thea Miller is Program Director of the Women on Board™ Mentoring Program, a program designed to promote the nomination of women to corporate boards in Canada by linking high potential women with Board Chairs and CEOs from leading companies.

Ms. Miller began working with Women on Board™ at its inception. She was instrumental to the development of the mentoring program, which she has successfully grown from 7 participating companies at the launch of the program in 2007 to 14 participating companies in its second year of operation.

Prior to this, Ms. Miller worked with governance and director recruitment consultants, Patrick O'Callaghan and Associates, and executive search firm, The Caldwell Partners.

Ms. Miller has a Bachelor of Arts Degree in Communications Studies from Wilfrid Laurier University, and lives in Vancouver with her husband and two young daughters.
